OUR SPA PARTNERS

GROUND

GROUND a Cork based Wellness Brand was founded by wellness expert Peigín Crowley in 2020, following decades designing spa experiences for global luxury hotels. When the world paused during lockdown, Peigín returned to the roots of her craft, hand blending therapeutic oils at her kitchen table in response to what people truly needed: support for sleep, stress, hormone health, skin wellness, cancer care and children's emotional wellbeing. GROUND crafts 100% natural, vegan products in small batches in Ireland, blending plant-based ingredients with sincere intention to soothe the soul. With a therapist-centric approach and deep understanding that every body is different, GROUND offers intuitive self-care rituals that honour the need for rest, reconnection, and renewal.
